

Policy 28-00 Legal Advice
Sponsor: District Governing Board

Policy

The District Governing Board (the Board) may utilize the services of a private attorney for and on behalf of Coconino Community College. Legal counsel shall be utilized to benefit and further the purposes and mission of the College.

The College President, administrative staff authorized by the President, and the Board Chair are designated representatives of the College that may confer with legal counsel. The President, and the administrative staff authorized by the President, may, on an ongoing basis, request legal advice regarding the day-to-day activities of the College.

A Board member or a group of Board members may confer with legal counsel with the prior approval of the Board Chair or approval of the full Board. If the Board Chair (or authorized Board Member) requests written opinions of counsel pertaining to the overall operation of the College or its Board, legal counsel's written opinion shall be provided to the full Board.
